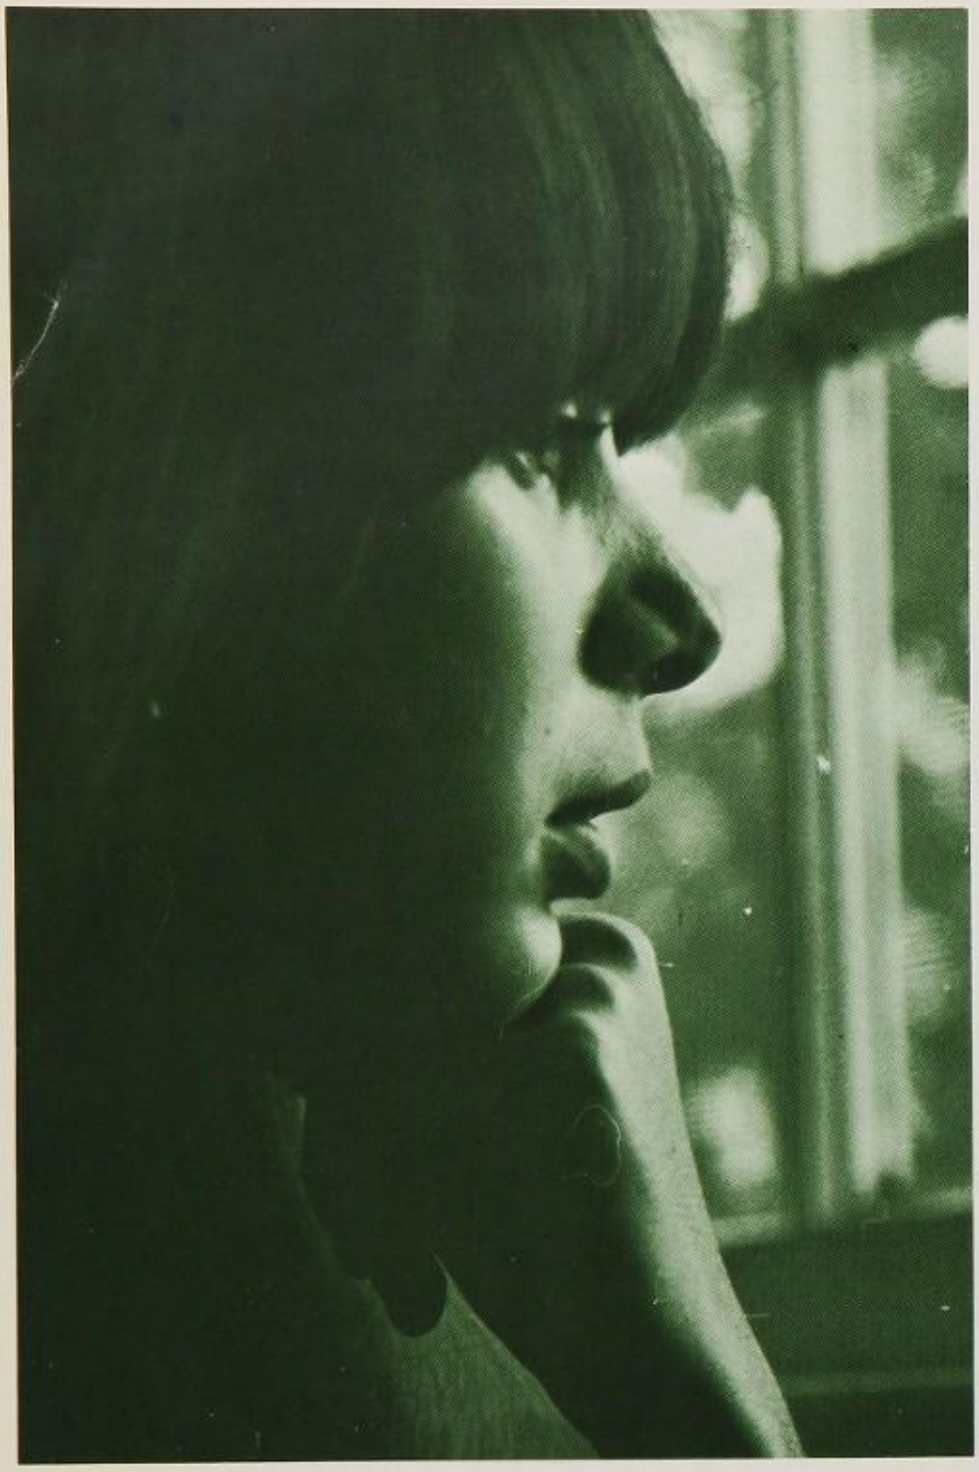
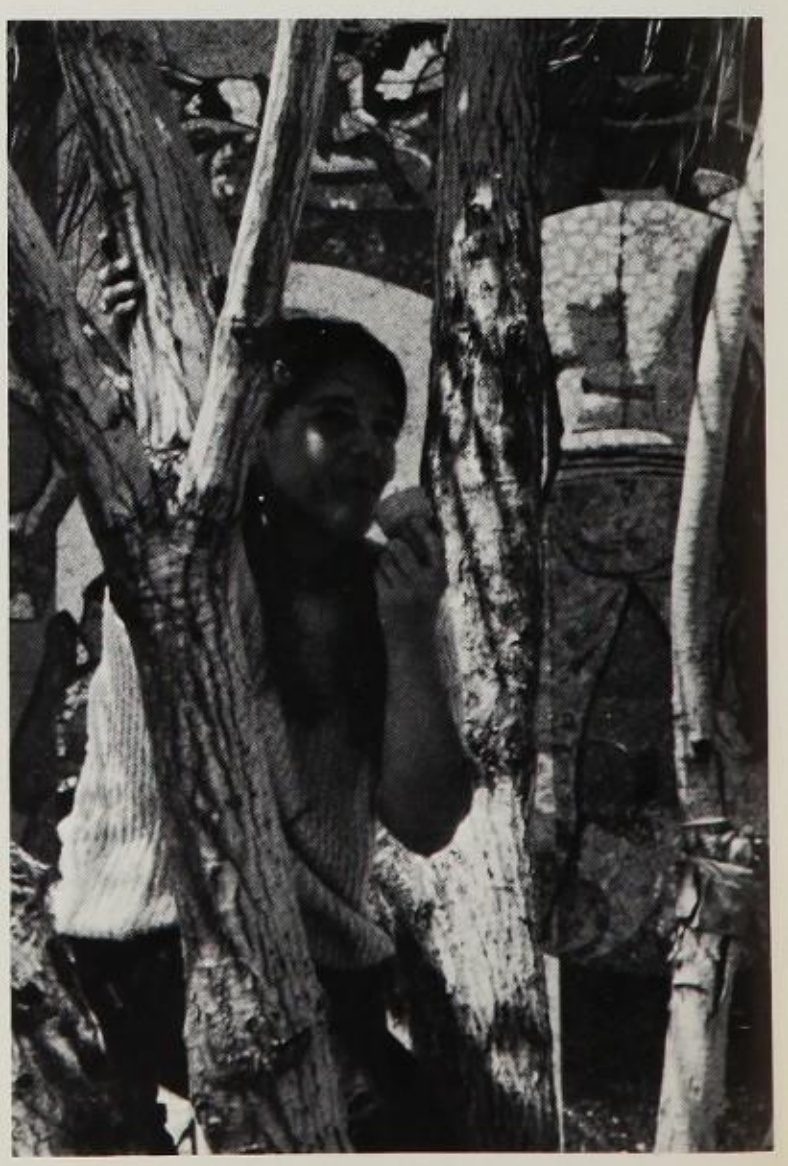
EXPLORING





THE '70's . . .

In this year, 1970, we are dedicating the El Camino to the beginning of a new decade, and a hope for a better tomorrow. How will we be able to change the world and make it a better place: by living together peacefully, and communicating with each other. We must be able to come together to speak, to work, or to play. But no matter what feelings we bring with us, we must remember, we pass these on to each one we touch. Without letting people know how we feel, or what we believe, our generation has little chance of taking its place. We must LISTEN and UNDERSTAND another's point of view.

Ten years ago, the sky was our limit. Today, there is no limit to the sky. What we make of our lives is solely up to us. We are the leaders of tomorrow and the world will soon be in our hands.

Follow the sun and the stars and steer us well into the beginning of the 1970's.

SENIORS

The day of graduation for the senior signals the beginning of a new life. Like the sign of Aquarius, this new life will be unpredictable. There is so much the graduate is now forced to face. He is on his own and he must be an individual. Although his parents might still be around to advise, decisions must be made on his own.

The Aquarian, as is the graduate, is fond of all that is new: meeting new people, trying new experiences, and just being a new person. In other words, he is growing up.

The Aquarians have a tendency to have a straightforward nature. They are strong willed and pursue an object with great determination. The senior is filled with enthusiasm and strives for the top. Whatever his or her goal might be, nothing will stand in the way. Thus, his achievements will be due to his devotion.

The Aquarian had a deep concern for poverty and a deeper sympathy for ignorance. The graduating class of '70 marked the end of the two semester year. They also marked the beginning of a new decade. A decade where teenagers will be informed. The hunger for knowledge of what is going on in the world, and what life is all about, is stressed more and more everyday. The young adults of today are constantly striving for peace throughout the world, and the love for humanity lives in the hearts of all.

GOVERNMENT

Libra, represented by the scales, is the sign we have chosen for student government. In 1970 there has been a constant striving for balance between the administration, the student body, and the faculty. Each must be willing to compromise with the other in order to maintain harmony.

This striving for peace is an outstanding characteristic of Libra, which is symbolized by an iron fist encased in a velvet glove. Librans want to lead, but dread friction. It is necessary for our student government and administration to work this way. Our service clubs: Las Amitas, Los Serenos, Las Doncellas, Los Campeones, Las Madrnas, and Los Escuderos, worked together with our administration and served our school thus maintaining this harmonious atmosphere. In this manner, much was accomplished. Student-teacher relations were improved, and respect and understanding were gained.

Librans also have been characterized as being progressive. This trait was shown in some of the new and interesting assemblies and projects which were staged during the past year. The psychodrama, in particular, was an example of this progressive spirit.

Yet this is only a beginning. Surely, this strong sense of justice and fair play will help us in dealing with our fellowman as we, the leaders of tomorrow, prepare for "the new decade".

Las Amitas

Officers: Pres., Laurene Reiner; Vice Pres., Jan Berkowitz; Sec., Katy Korngold; Sponsor, Mrs. Crum.

Las Amitas and Las Doncellas are the girls' underclassmen service clubs of North Hollywood High. Both have generously contributed their time and energy for the purpose of serving their school.

Las Amitas, the tenth grade service club, served at sports nights and Girls' League functions.

Las Doncellas, the eleventh grade service club, was responsible for keeping the halls clear during lunch. It is also a prerequisite for joining Las Madrinas.

Each group has a tradition of fine scholarship and service, and has greatly contributed to the success of many North Hollywood activities during the past year.

Las Doncellas

Officers: Pres., Emma Jo Maxwell; Vice Pres., Kathy McCoy; Sec., Marcy Yessin; Treas., Joy Kristiansen; Historian, Kim Margolin; Sponsor, Mrs. BeMiller.

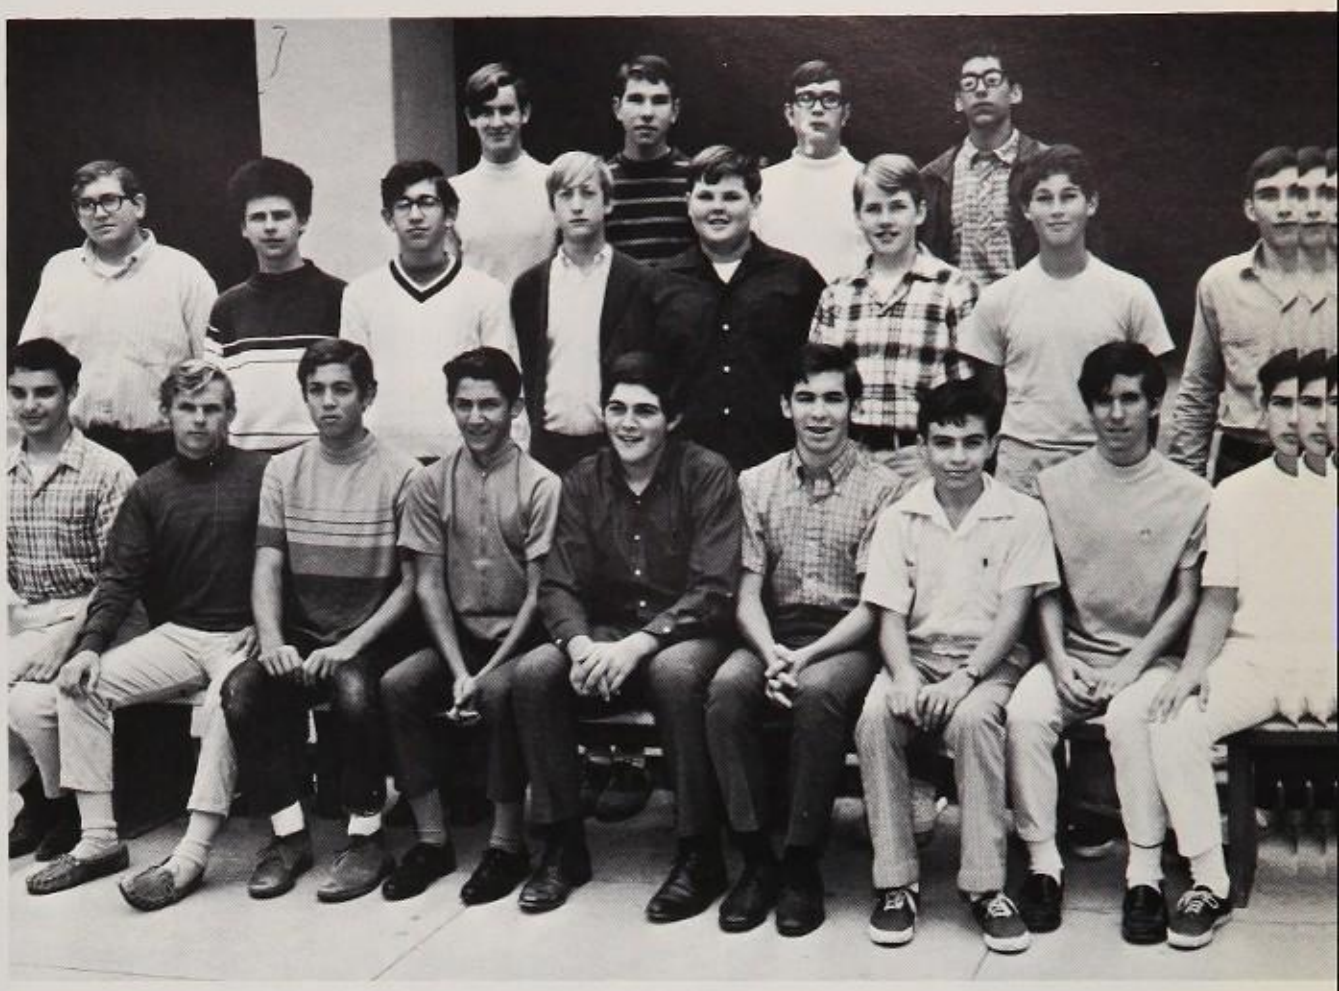
Los Serenos

The underclassmen boys' service clubs have served our school well during the past year.

Los Serenos, the boy's tenth grade service club, has traditionally worked at sports nights.

Los Campeones, the eleventh grade service club, was resposible for assisting the Las Doncellas in keeping the halls clear. You must be a member of Los Campeones in order to apply for Los Escuderos.

Both clubs met weekly to discuss the various projects they were undertaking.



Officers: Pres., Leonard Rothstein; Vice Pres., Mark Dervin; Sec., David Bohrman; Sgt. at Arms, Gary Eisenberg, Sponsor, Mr. Gregory.

Los Campeones

Officers: Pres., Bill Lipil; Vice Pres., Jim Debree; Sec., Steve Ellner, Sponsor, Mr. Klein.

ACTIVITIES

Like any young adult today, a Gemini is essentially a free spirit. He is concerned with close associations and relationships and our student body has set some good examples of this in the many varied and interesting activities of the year 1970. There is an alertness a Gemini naturally exhibits which makes him able to go from one thing to another with breathtaking speed: the speed which is exhibited by a couple dancing at a homecoming dance or a fan in a crowd at a football game. Nothing passes the eyes of a Gemini without him noticing it, and a good example of this could be the Baja Marimba Band, a Psycho Drama, or a Laugh Out Assembly; we like something we can see and take part in.

Monotony is one of the most deadly conditions a Gemini can encounter. Dead routine and automatism are poison and that is why there is always something happening at N.H.H.S. Hardly a lunch goes by without some activity taking place, such as a yo-yo contest, a chalk in, or even a tricycle race.

A Gemini needs constant stimulation from his environment and this is shown by any one of our students, whether we are winning or losing, at home or at school. The students at North Hollywood are always active, and you see smiling faces and friends wherever you go. N.H.H.S. students have had fun in 1970 "doing their own thing", whether it be bobbing for apples, running for office, or yelling for their football team. A Gemini treats everyone in the same friendly manner, and has "no hang ups" about having some plain ordinary fun.

A Gemini is the living example of perpetual motion and possesses an eagerness with which he goes about his everyday living. No matter if an activity be a total success or a total disaster, the Gemini will smile through it all. He can lead us through the darkness and bring forth the sun.

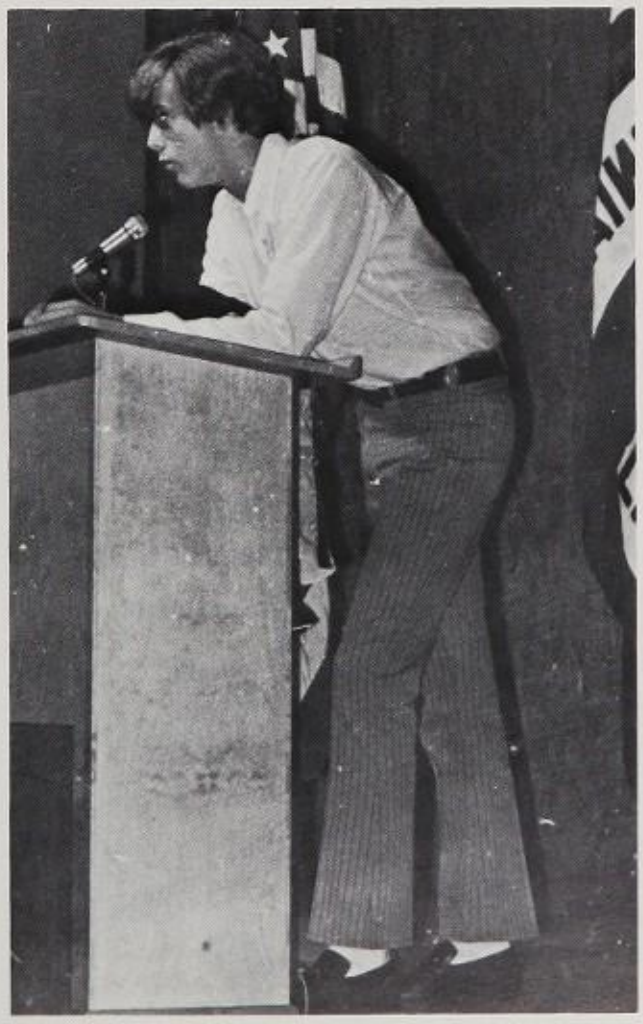
Noon Activities

The Chalk-In was a successful noon activity where students were given the chance to be creative.

Action at the starting line for the first annual Tricycle Race at noon.

Student involvement makes an activity like the tricycle race a success.



On October 15, the day of the Peace Moratorium, students had an opportunity to express their opinions on the Vietnam War.

Chalk in hand, Mark Lewis shows his talents in the Quad at noon.

Listen to the Band!

The Baja Marimba Band gave a great performance, early in the fall semester. We thank them for their time, and support of our school. Leader Julius Wechter returned to N.H.H.S. much to the acclaim of the student body.

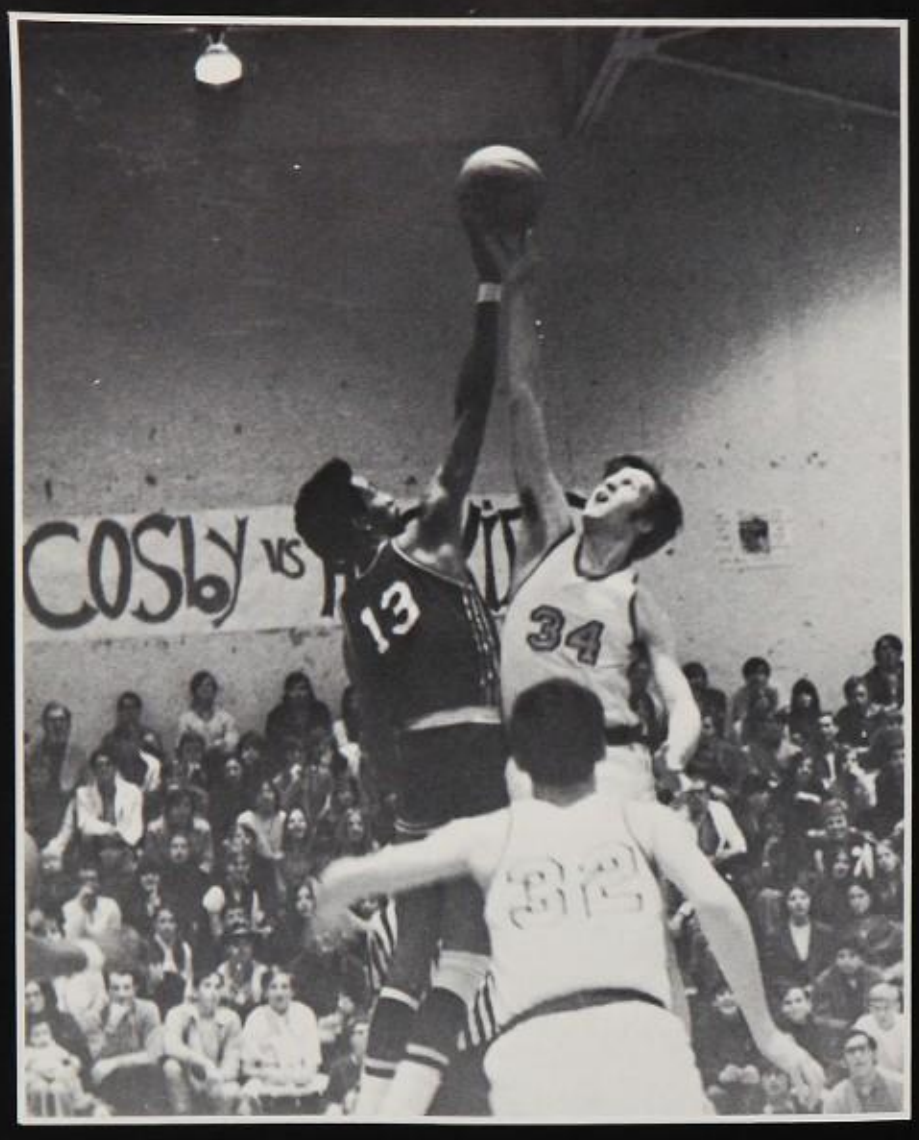
The Activity Card Assembly

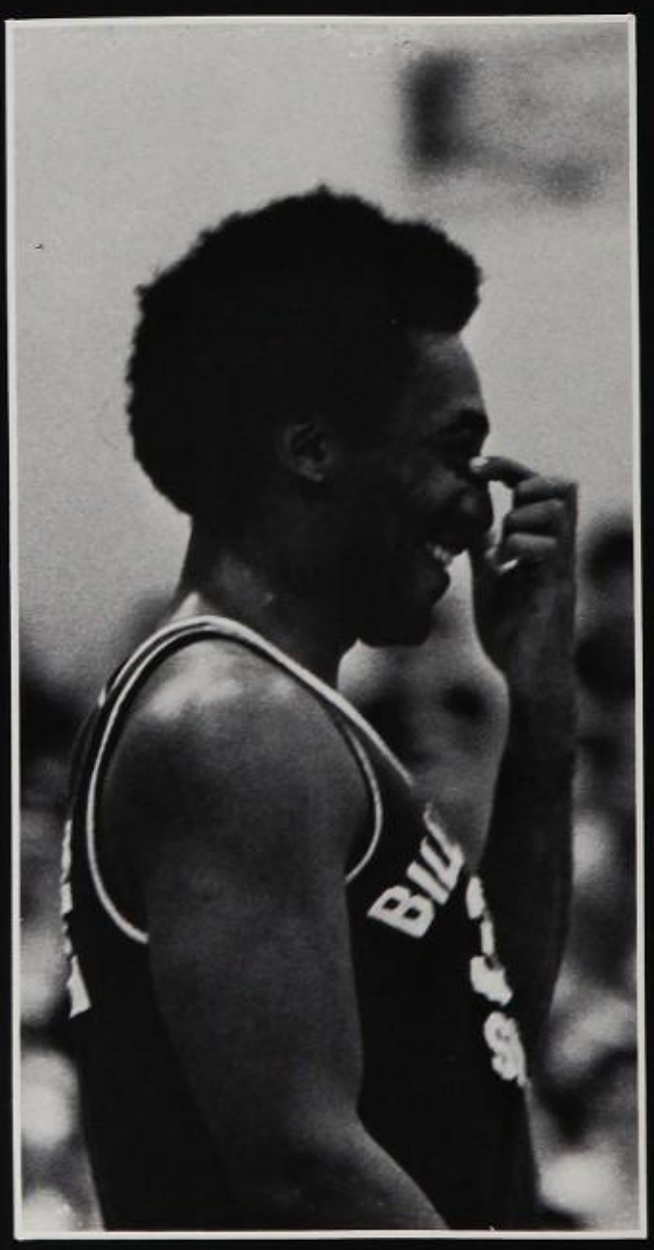
Competition for the Baja Marimba band as Student Council drums up student support for the activity card.

Dr. Pack speaks up pointing out the many activities included in the activity card.

Cosby Cometh



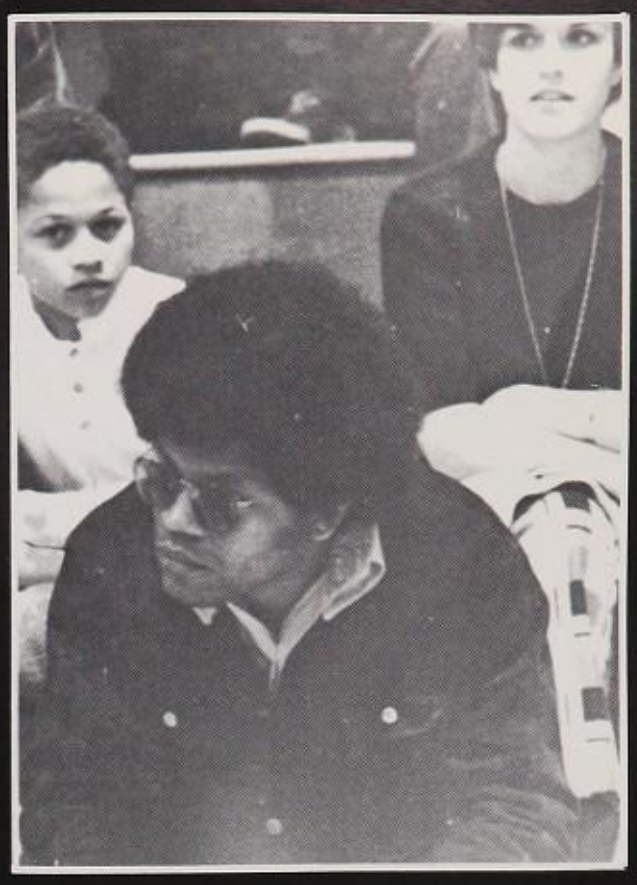
The first tip-off



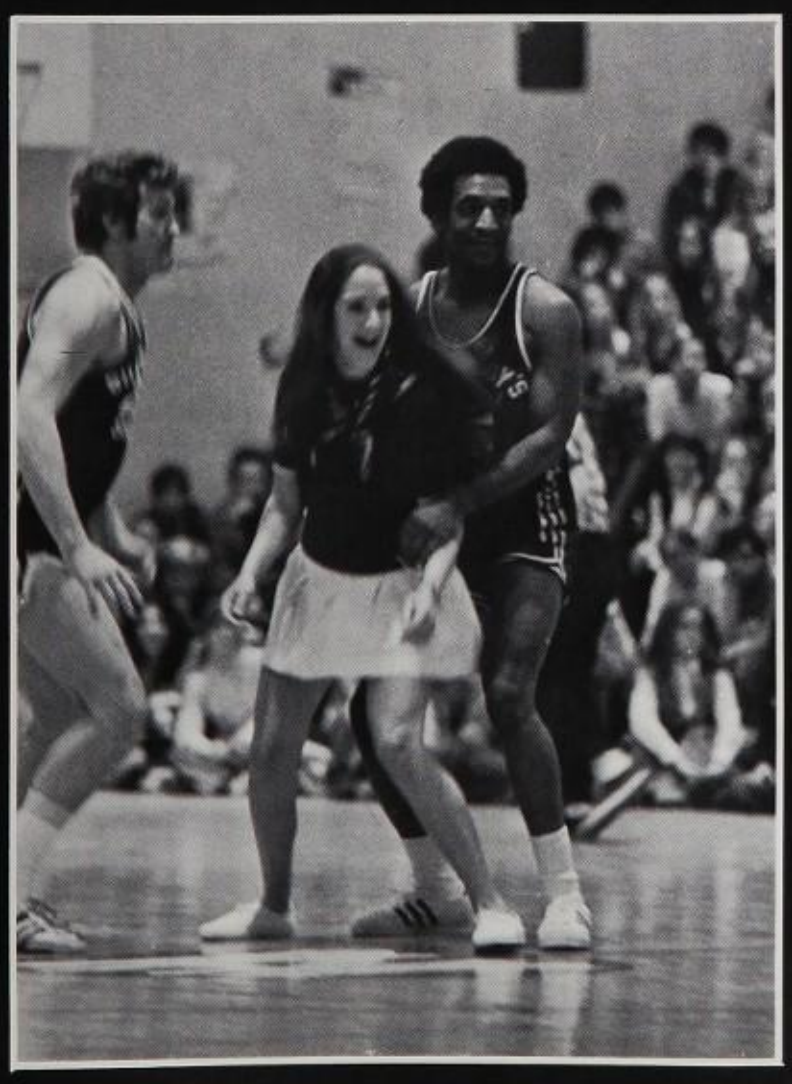
Is this team for real?

Mr. Kincaid, alias Bill Cosby, accepts a long lost basketball needle from Principal Dr. Pack during halftime.

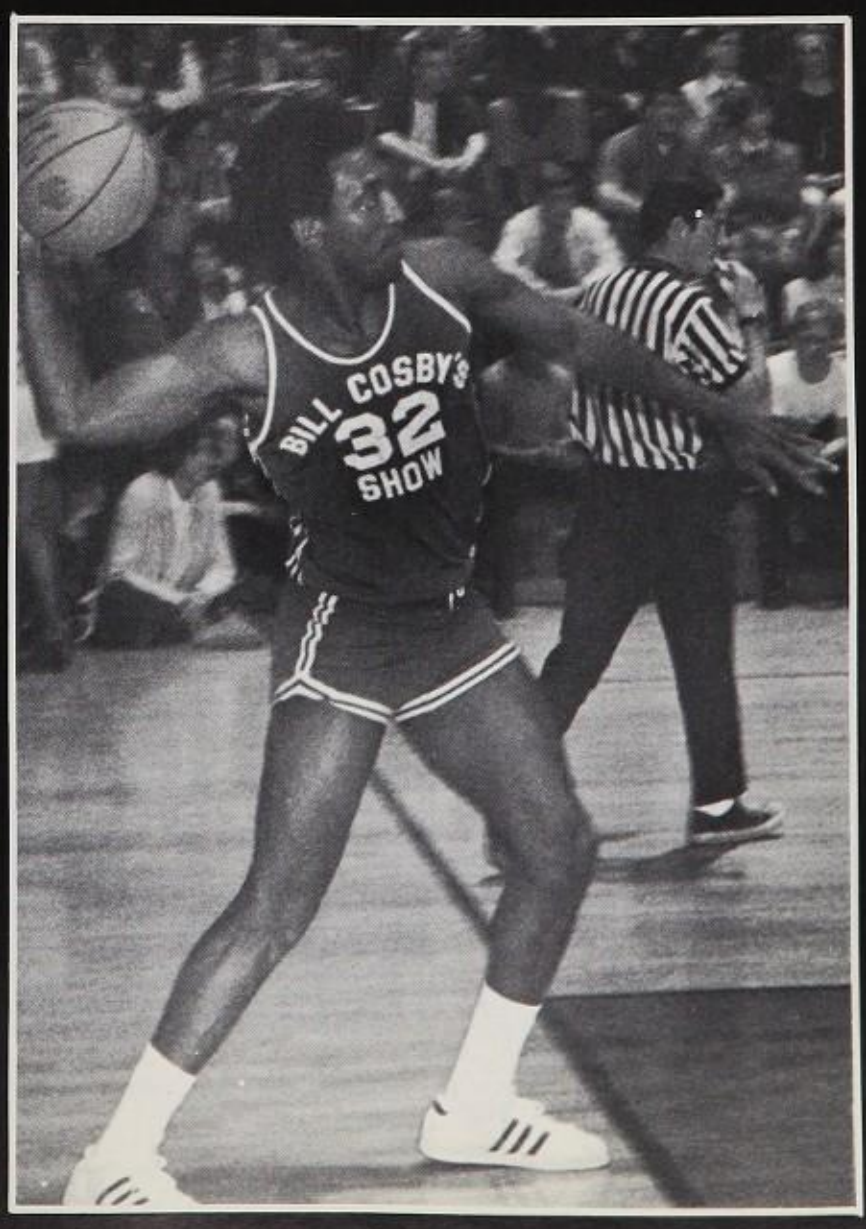
1970 saw a return of Bill Cosby and his All Star Team. Among the members of Cosby's team were, Bill Cosby (of course), Lee Majors of the "Big Valley", Bernie Casey of the L.A. Rams, and Ken Kragen, a member of the Pat Paulsen "Half a Comedy Hour Show." Also attending, were Michael Cole and Clarence Williams of "The Mod Squad", much to the delight of their many fans. Among our own NHHS team members were Mr. Cadwell, Mr. Bach, Mr. Nelson, Mr. Reeves, Mr. Neilson, Mr. Ventresca, Mr. Donen, Mr. Malcolm, Principal of Frost Junior High, and the delightful Miss Siegel. Our Varsity Basketball JV and BEE teams filled out the ranks and gave the All-Stars a run for their money as the score was close with final quarters showing a 102 to 91 victory for the All-Stars.



Clarence Williams lends support to both teams.



Introducing "The Untouchable" Miss Siegel.



Santa is Security

There are many children in our country who are left homeless and are temporarily adopted by foster parents. Many of these children wouldn't know a real Christmas if it weren't for the love our students express at Christmas time.

Each year homerooms have the opportunity to adopt one or more of these children, and to send them carefully chosen Christmas gifts to brighten up their lives.

This year the Christmas Project was directed by the Girls' League with the help of many of the service clubs. But the real work is done by each and every student that participates. Money is raised through such devious methods as white elephant sales, bake sales, auctions, grab bags, and lunch trade-offs. These activities involve teachers and students and school spirit is at an all time high.

The gifts are purchased and wrapped by students and delivered to the main hall where a beautifully decorated Christmas tree confirms the spirit of the holidays. This year N.H.H.S. student were even more generous as 151 children were adopted, and received many tokens of our affection.

The Girls' League did a great job in directing our Christmas Project with leadership by Michele DePaul and Nancy Weiss.

Sometimes the littlest jobs can be the most fun too!

Many children would never know the fun of Christmas time if it were not for the students of N.H.H.S.

Reach Out to Someone

Camarillo State Hospital was the site of the Human Relations Club's most unusual activity this semester; it was on the grounds of the well-known mental hospital that the group participated in an intercultural conference with students from both San Fernando and Chatsworth High Schools. The students and teachers held several group discussions, the purpose of which was to allow members to learn from about each other.

The purpose of the Human Relations Club itself can be easily implied from its name: an improvement of relations among people of every race, religion, economic level, and nationality.

Included in the activities of the past two semesters are: the previously mentioned weekend at Camarillo, the follow-up party at San Fernando High, an exchange visit with Crenshaw High in which North Hollywood students visited Crenshaw, and Crenshaw students reciprocated with a visit the very next day, an invitational assembly featuring Lou Smith, president of Operation Bootstrap, and a film made by the Committee of Responsibility concerning the war-damaged Vietnamese children.

Membership in the Human Relations Club is open to all NHHS students who are interested in man's communication with man.

Alden Howard stars in J.B. as well as speech contests

To be truly educated, a person must be able to communicate his knowledge and opinions effectively to others. Through participation in speech avtivities, the student has an opportunity to meet many new people and to develop skills in communication that will be helpful in both his social and professional life.

The Speech Club of NHHS is a chapter of the National Forensic League, and is open to all students. Awards for participation are: NFL points toward degrees, service points, plus many other valubal prizes.

During the school year 1969-1970, The Speech Club won the Grand Sweepstakes trophy twice for Novice tournments. If the trophy is won for the third, time, it becomes the property of the NHHS Speech Club. Alan Cirlin, Alden Howard, and Scott Pollard distinguished themselves in service club oratorical contests.

The firechief, Emilio Delgado, and the maid, Christine Avila, speak but really say nothing.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Alex Henteloff and Margurerite Roy, fail to make their marriage communicate.

is the Beginning of Understanding

On February 25, Senior English classes were invited to a most unusual play titled "The Bald Soprano", sponsored by the Inner City Cultural Center and our own English Department.

The author, Eugene Ionesco, tells a simple story about average people who continually speak nonsense. But the theme was not so simple. Most NHHS students thought the play a comedy, but Ionesco intended it to be a tragedy, the tragedy of language.

It has been said that to communicate is the beginning of understanding. The director, Abel Franco, through the use of Ionesco's play, tries to convey the idea that, though we do speak, we don't really communicate.

This meaning may not be clear-cut and simple at first, but think about it . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Olga James and Conrad Parhan, simply take off where Mr. and Mrs. Smith left off.

UNDER CLASSMEN

Aries, the ram, represents the character and goals of North Hollywood's underclassmen. It represents the strong-willed juniors and the pioneering sophomores. These juniors will be next year's student body leaders, and will have to face the challenges and responsibilties this adds. Sophomores have made a beginning, but still have two years to go. They have the time to do what they can to make their school what they want. Today's underclassmen have the strength also to shape their lives. Aries represents this strength and power.

The ram also constitutes leaders, pioneers, born with the courage to meet challenges as they come. As underclassmen become seniors, and graduate, this spirit will continue. The ideas of underclassmen are born in the ram's strength, and it is in this strength that they will be sustained.

The relationships between underclassmen and te people around them also relate to Aries. The ram is gentle and warm, and can easily make friendships. Aries enjoys being with people and aving close friendships. In North Hollywood's underclassmen, there is this sense of companionship. This atmosphere of friendship will continue to grow, uniting the students, faculty and the adminstration.

Aries' love and leadership gives strength to this movement, and the underclassmen are those chosen to give it life.

Memories

Where has it gone
The love we once knew?
As I awaken each dawn
I begin feeling blue.
I remember your smile
So warm . . . so bright
And the tenderness of your touch
When you held me at night.
I remember the beach
And how we walked along the tide
The times you laughed
The times I cried.
This love which we shared
Was only last year
When there were no worries
No cares . . . no fears.
But somehow
Somewhere along the way
Someone came along
Who led you astray.
A girl with blonde hair
And sparkling blue eyes
Was the reason for the sorrow
My tears and your lies.
And now as I gaze back into the past
Which seems to have come and gone so fast,
I recall your smile
And the warmth of your touch
I long for you to hold me
I miss you so much . . .

pam nemett

There were so many good-bye gifts
I wanted to give you
To thank you for being
So wonderfully you
I wanted to give you
    the Eiffel Tower
    a field of roses,
    San Francisco.
But I have no money (nor time)
So will you settle for A kiss,
    A smile,
    And a thank you?

barbara salzman

Woman. Moods and emotions
so close to the surface, waiting. Thoughts, dreams, ideas, ambitions. Serene, stormy; intangible in all her reality. There she is . . .
but there, also, she is not.
But steady, timeless. Like the wind, perhaps. Or the sea; And still, like nothing
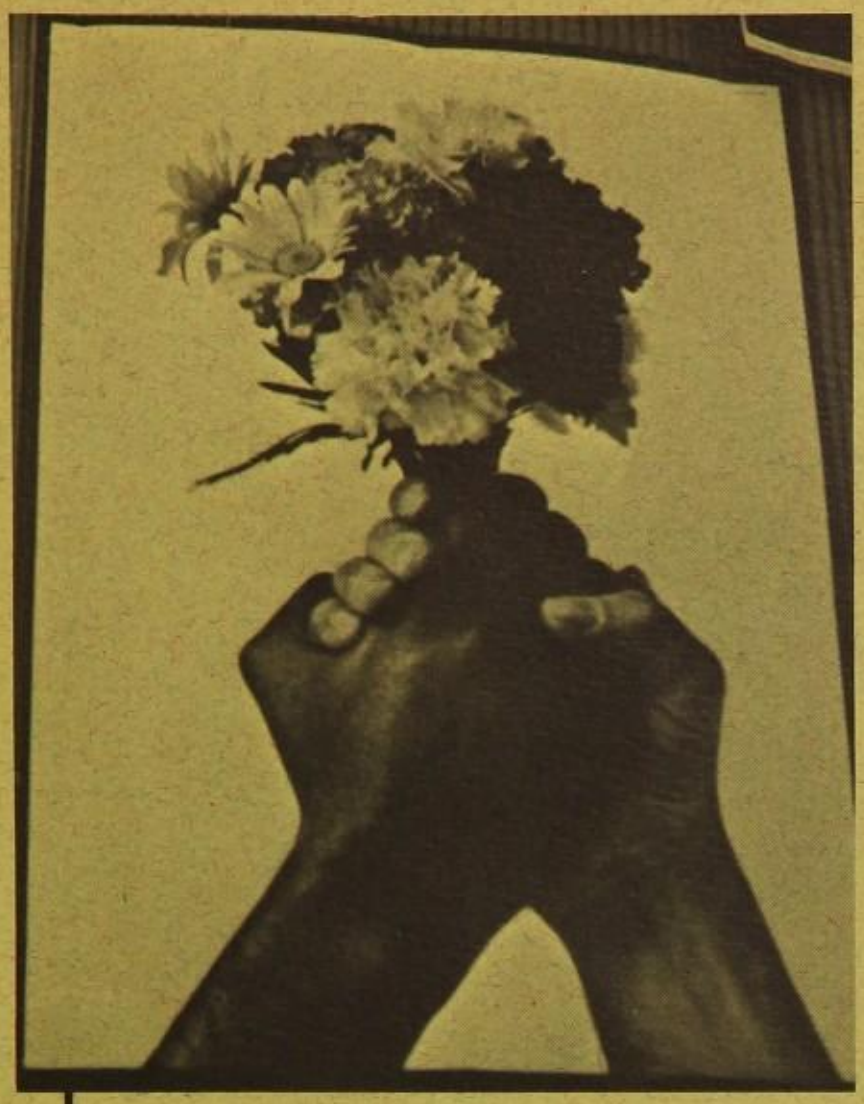
so much as herself.
Woman . . .



Fear me not child-----
I am no better

play with your dreams,
let them not play you.
speak what you please,
yet let it be true.
Waltz with the wind,
offer your love to a cloud,
sing with the breeze,
but let not your heart
sing too loud.
travel within your own
wonderland,
yet never forget----- you've a helping hand.

Fear me not child-----
I am no wiser

PEOPLE PACKAGES

The People I know
Are human packages
Each wrapped differently
With varying gifts to offer.

What lies beneath the lids
Of these people
Under the tissue paper
Which so often
Pads and conceals the truth?

I must open these packages for myself,
For their wrappings often lie.

mary mcgrath

People Hurt

People hurt what they don't understand
They lie to you and cheat you and still don't understand
We live in a world
full of pain and sorrow
People look at today
and care nothing about tomorrow
Will we always live in hatred
and fear
Life to some is very Dear
But still people hurt what they don't understand
Will it always be like this between man?

joan gordon

No one will cry for you
You'll have to cry alone.
No one will try for you
You'll have to try on your own.
No one will listen to you
Until you listen, yourself.
No one will want you
Unless you want yourself.
No one will care for you Unless you care yourself.

linda koffman

Contentment

To sit on the grass
with the sun in your hair

To live a day
with no worries or cares

To view the world
as a carnival fair

Contentment

To love
and know it's being returned

To have everything for which you have ever yearned

To know
and yet be ready to learn

Contentment

To see a bird fly
and know you're as free

To give and take
like the tide of the sea

To die
and yet know you'll always be

A Thought

Spring opens a door of running color,
For the dry barren desert.

steve phillips

TRIBUTE TO MY BRUSH

Bestowed am I with sprightly brush in hand
That surly bonds of paint cannot restrain
It's free ascent to flow through rainbow's band, caressing color onto white-washed plane.
My briskly-bristled friend embraces hue
Of sullen value when it condescends;
But should I long for firmamental blue,
My servant through the spectral clouds transcends.
With spuming splash and fleeting, blue-green swells,
My sight's appendage flaunts the restless sea;
Yet whence more tranquil strokes arise, there wells
The lush, exalted image of a tree.
This mirthful brush sweeps praise to splend'rous sight;
Endowed am I with both to my delight.

howard bliman

Alone on endless sandy beaches, or were they just clouds?
Not a trouble did we have.
Our purpose was one
With a freedom which was essential.

Together on a sandy beach,
or were we on a cloud?
Nothing could interrupt our lives,
our happiness, our love.

On an endless sandy beach,
or could it be a cloud?
It seemed as if the day would never end.
We couldn't imagine going back
To the struggle of a harsh reality.

We were on a sandy beach,
or was it just a cloud?
We were somewhere alone,
close to god and nature.

bruce newman

For What It's Worth

Smoked a lid, that's all he did,
now this guy,
knows how to fly.

He dropped a tab,
stole from a lab,
then on a trip
he soon did flip.

He popped some reds,
and soon his head,
crashed to the floor,
takes reds no more.

Took a yellow,
sure was mellow,
what a man,
can't even stand.

Popped some whites,
ready to fight,
all full of pep,
man, I'm hep.

Turned on with hash,
turned in, in a flash,
floating around,
not even off the ground.

Shot up some speed,
plus blew some weed,
grew some hemp,
what a tempt.

Took some mescaline,
turned into a bean,
started to sprout,
mescaline's out.

Got so loaded,
his head exploded.
Where he's found?
. . . . . 6 feet down.

jo ellen steiner

What Is Love?

Love is like an onion,
You take it with delight.
And afterwards you wonder,
What made you take that bite.
Your heart is not a plaything,
Your heart is not a toy.
But if you want it broken,
Just hand it to a boy.

Death

A flower withers.
A memory fades.
A love dies.
A joy departs.
A man is weeping on the beach
as the sun sets.

A girl is throwing flowers into the sea.
Forgotten faces fade out of confused dreams.
A dying love haunts the night.
Proud youth has passed into hamble age.
The orange sky is darkening.

Death comes upon us all.

FACES

People that I meet and pass

In the city's broken roar

Faces that I lose so soon

And have never found before.

Do you know how much you tell

In the meeting of our eyes

How ashamed I am, and sad

To have pierced your poor disguise.

Secrets rushing without sound

Crying from your hiding places

Let me go I cannot bear

The sorrow of the passing faces.

People in restless street

Can it be, oh can it be

In the meeting of our eyes

That you know as much of me?

gayl greenfield

Sir, do not judge me aloud
It is not for us to discuss
But rather, change me with your eyes
and move me with your tears.
I shall not laugh aloud
I shall not laugh inside
So let not your pity be our bond.
Dismiss the crying pity into the deepening hollows of self control
Into the deepest part of your heart
Where your emotions are harboured.
I will not see the balck
and white
I shall only see gray.
Sir, do not judge me aloud
For speech now will kill all hope
And leave nothing,
but pity.

gayl greenfield

C[illegible]

Confusion is constantly filling my head,
my thoughts are you between tears that I shed.
I think of love sometimes received, mostly given,
But I will stay strong and go on with my living.
The memories in my mind
never will change,
But feelings I had will be rearranged.
I can't go back to get hurt again,
So I'll have to move on until I win . . .

Alone

The night is dark and filled with loneliness
I am alone now in my room of darkness
A world I created, only I can understand, and only I can end
As I lie here upon my bed
I listen to the sounds of silence around me . . .

pam nemett

Smiles

Dying faces come to life
at the glance of a smile.
Uncertainty of other's feelings vanish with the presence of a smile.
Saddened eyes lighten up to the voice of a smile.
The silence of two alone
can be broken with a smile.
Sleeping joy is awakened
by a smile.
Can the only true answer
be just a smile?

linda koffman

SHALLOW

And as I reached out Desperately
From my pit of agony
For a hand to rescue me
From my burdens,
I grabbed one's hand
Who was in a deeper hole
Than I,
And suddenly
I felt
That I could wait.

mary mcgrath

MUSICAL SUNSHINE

You are the flute on my life
Whose music plays
Both
Sorrow and joy.

At times like this
When the music is cold,
I try to think of the happy notes
You've played for me
And suddenly
A sunshine piccolo
Begins to sing.

mary mcgrath

A tear Escapes
from sad eyes.

The gusty wind
blows the rain
in all directions.

The sky is filled with greyness and sadness.

Another tear.
And another.

Oh why?
But that is meaningless.

The winds are cold;
and the tears dry on the face.

No going on.
No stopping.

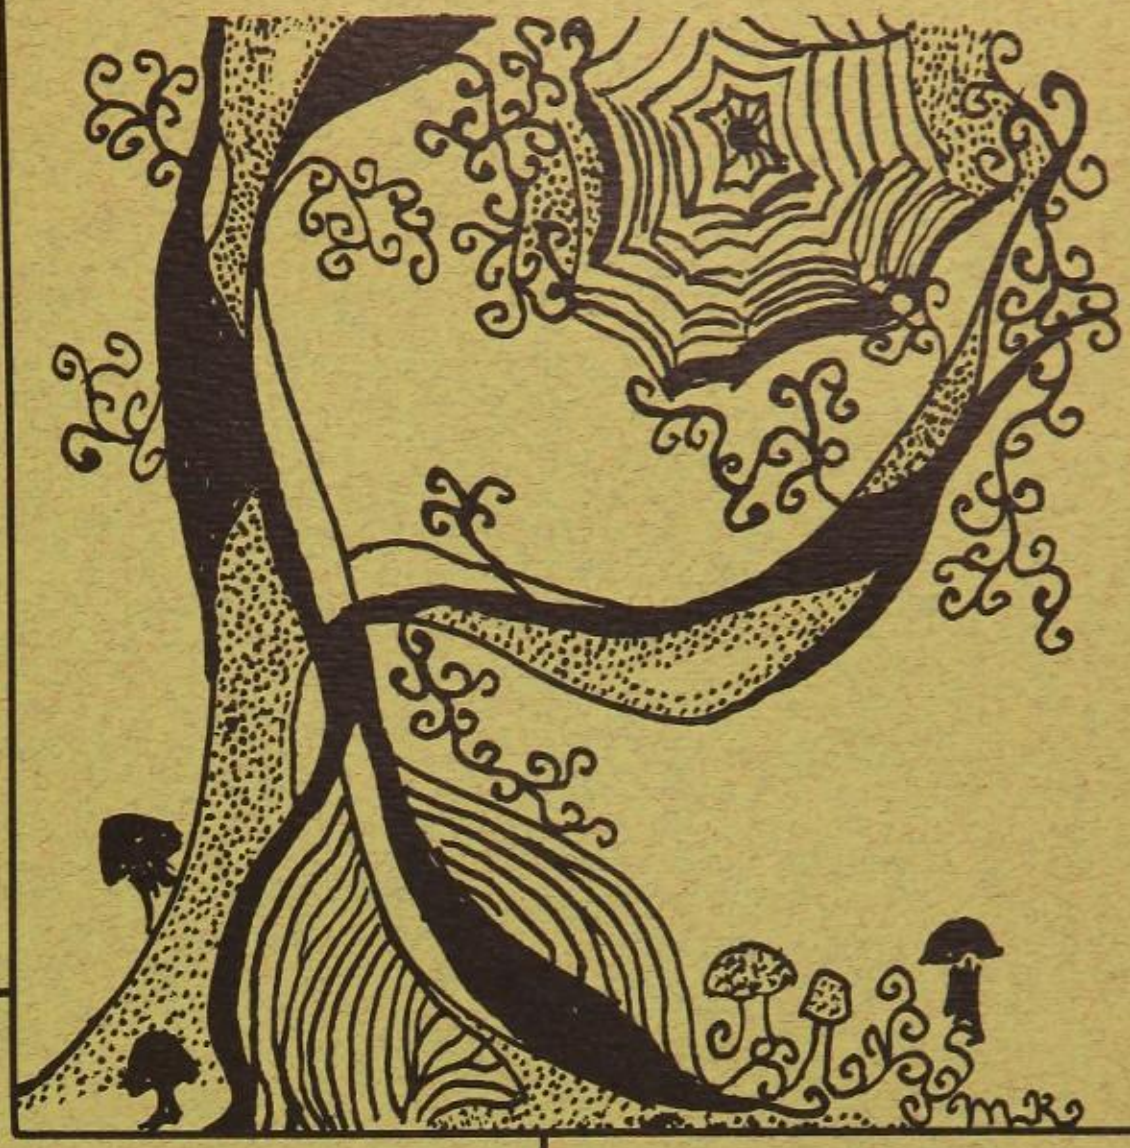
No thinking.

Just the cold grey sadness.

lawrence andrews

Absence is to love
As wind is to fire.
If it is weak
It will be blown out;
If it is strong
It will grow
And last forever.

chuck whittlesey



EXISTENCE

He asked for strength that he might achieve;
He was made weak that he might be submissive.

He asked for health that he might do greater things;
He was given infirmity that he might do better things.

He asked for riches that he might be happy;
He was given poverty that he might be wise.

He asked for power that he might have the praise of man;
He was given weakness that he might feel the need of God.

He asked for all things that he might enjoy life;
He was given life that he might enjoy all living things.

He has received nothing he has asked for
All that he hoped for;
He is most blessed.

sandy galin

Give, just give and do it free
Don't ask for love
Just do it now
Give all you can and give it right
Then smile at them
no matter who
and learn to mean it in your heart
But don't expect to get it back
Just give it out
and give it free
don't anger them
don't make them sad
Give them peace
to keep inside
and if they give you something bad
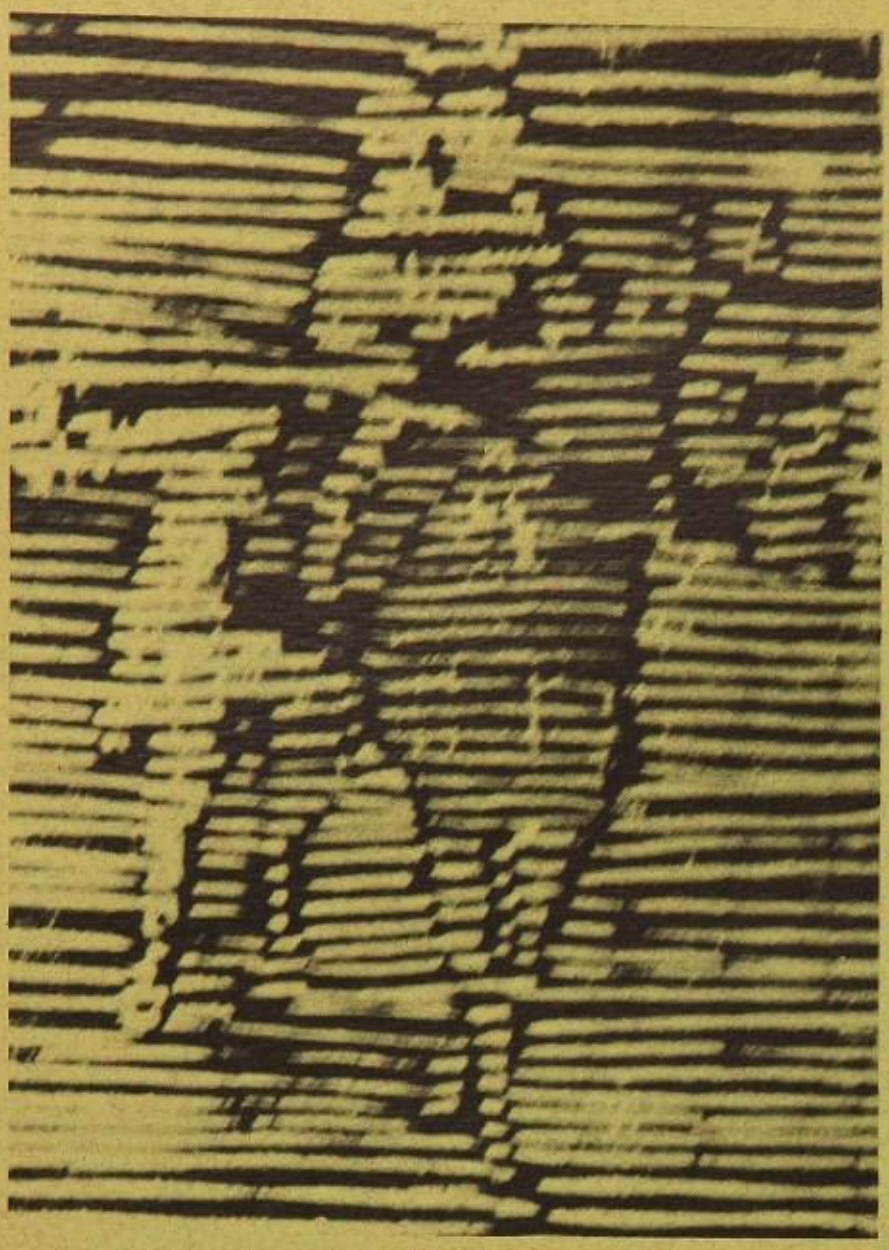
don't be afraid
to give love back
Just give it now
and give it free

charlene koonce



Blue as the summer sky
were eyes that tranced
my soul.

I watched and the eyes seemed bluer

And I know nothing of you my stranger

And I've known you so long my friend

And your joy is my joy
my lover.

And the eyes seemed bluer still.

gayl greenfield

Sitting on the beach,
on my own little sand dune,
I see your face almost as if you were here
only it's a little blurred
by my tears.

As I'm sitting here the tides coming in.
I suppose I should move
but my body remains still.
Only the wind seems to be embracing me.
It's almost as if you were here

I am so cold, but thinking of the love
we once had warms me and comforts me.
I can hear your voices.
calling to me
I can hear your voice
calling to me
within the waves.
It's almost as if you were here.

Someday we will be together
I will let you on my sand dune
It will become ours.
The rest of the world will no longer exist . . .

Just you and me on our sand dune together

ellen dubin

It's out there and we know it is,
It stretched from the farthest point of our universe,
It drapes out galaxy from end to end,
It is now at Pluto and in between,
And through a super telescope it can be seen.

It will remain among the heavenly bodies
For future men to see;
It will stay there and rule those bodies
For men who want to be free.

When a true person, of this Human Race,
Looks at the cosmos and stars,
He may see what looks like to be
An Eagle . . . who's magnificant and mighty.

Through the telescope which our vision flew,
We see the emblem of red, white, and blue.
It stands for a nation, a nation of Free,
For this nation put it there, for all mankind to see.

Forever, for years, on the dust of a dune,
An American flag, we placed on the moon!

Thoughts

how simple yet complex as if a tiny silver minnow with its intricate skeletal design.
how confusing they are or is it just the words which like ink spots blur
the thoughts which we are really trying to convey by imaged feeling?
They are as ever many colored threads being constantly woven, in and out throught the framework and passage called our mind . . .
and the problem is that no one knows where the so-called
"errors" go
when they have been replaced.

laura katcher

I Wish . . .

I wish, I wish, I wish I were a tree,
For then everybody would pass by me.

There would be couples taking evening strolls.
And little girls, playing with trolls.

There would be birds making a nest,
And who would be there to protest?

Oh, I wish, I wish, I wish I were a tree,
But yet, on the other hand,
I'm glad I'm me.

Life

A little bird sits on a tree;
Now he flys away
Life is like that
Here today, gone tomorrow.

A little bird sits on a tree;
Now he falls off
Life is like that
Full of ups and downs.

A little bird sits on a tree;
Now he scratches himself
Life is like that Lousy.

Flights of fancy
on the water
like roses through a window.
The black smoke
of night
creeps up and stifles
the embers of a fiery day
and I've often wondered what it's like to dance upon the water
when the sun dies.

Before the day burns out
it sends a spark to light the moon
and like a lantern in the dark that attracts gnats
the moon is surrounded by dancing stars
and I've often wondered what it's like to dance upon the water
on the shimmering beam
of the moon
while fish jump about and play me a part of their song
after the sun dies.

I search for that which is nearest me.
I seek for that which is innermost.
I reach for that which makes me reach.
I listen for that which is utter silence.
I look for that which no man can see.

"MEMORIES"

When man's material fancy
abruptly ends with death,
A memory of the past
Is all that we have left.

And after the grief and sorrow are done,
But ne'r completely it's true,
A memory to cherish as long as I live,
Is all that is left of you.

Though I know that you are with me
Not in body but in soul
I still can't help but miss you,
For memories untold,
Are haunting me beyond all thought
Of any human soul.

And as I find myself,
Looking back into the past
These memories of you, I know,
Will forever last.

The times we cried together,
The times we laughed aloud,
Now it is all covered by a
Dark and dingy shroud,
Of grief and sadness,
But your memory walks on proud.

And even though in body,
I miss you dear, tenfold,
Your ever growing memory,
Is ever growing bold.

greg marx

To Be

My mind is cut open. Oozing out is its vital essensces that make it real.
As the cold and damp sets in, the openess of my soul deteriorates with disease. All that I cherish is gone with despair. The tomb of my shell is closing in. But I'll be damned if I will lie here without fighting.

The Coach

our coach
a mournful gent
with shoulders stooped and body bent
although he's not a holy man he's learned to play the best he can this very night he's forced to see his team loose 54 to 3
no wonder he has only one dream which is to coach the other team.

julie prey

People live around and around
Dreaming of others in other big towns
Have some fun from time to time
Living in a world of hate and crime
Stepping up in the world is one big thing
But falling down is an impossible dream
Picking yourself up shows strength and courage
So do it now . . .
It's time for your porridge.

the mountain

i feel as if i were atop a mountain thousands of feet high. i am alone and free. no one is near. only the cold, still, snow beneath my feet.
no noise. silence lurks about me.
no sign of life. only me. i am alive. alive and free. i need no one . . . nothing. peace . . . peace is here.
it's all around me. i can hear it.
i can feel it. i can almost touch it.
peace is here. nowhere else. just here.
atop this mountain. this mountain which has made me aware. aware of freedom.
aware of peace. aware of life.
are you . . . ?

pam nemett

I find message in your words
I find happiness in your shadow
I find comfort in your footsteps
I find awareness in your gaze
What is this beauty
you so heartily possess,
. . . . . it is joy of life.

Amnael was always hearing
Trodding footsteps, ever-nearing,
Always louder more and more
Until one day upon his door
A rapping louder than before Reached into his inner core.

He shrank away and hid all night
And cowered at every gleam of light
Until the sound faded away
And night subsided into day.

What frightened him we'll never know
For everyone disliked him so Until one day we found him dead
Lying in tears upon his bed.

lawrence andrews

He gazed into my eyes;
While I in turn gazed into his.

He studied me;
While I in turn studied him.

He touched my face;
While I in turn touched his.

He kissed my lips;
While I in turn kissed his.

He told me he loved me;
But the love was all his.

Geometry of Death

1 is dead
a king.
Pyramidal stones keep the oily body
in 4 walls, and a hand-made spire
aims at Egypt's sun.
Old Pharaoh's encased, preserved; but an earthy tomb of 3's will not reach the π's of Ra's flaming disc.

ORGANIZATIONS

Virgos want to learn and share their knowledge with all people. They give much time and service to others, as in AFS, CSF, and Human Relations. Other clubs such as, Speech, Math, Science, and Chess are involved with a particular interest and strive for perfection within their field.

In most Clubs, there are officers, who like Virgos, have certain duties to perform. The people who hold these offices are trustworthy, not only to the club members, but also to the entire student body. Virgos are concerned enough to make sure all club members are included and have the opportunity to experience many activities. For example, the Ski Club members have experienced a scavenger hunt, dryland skiing, local skiing, and the highlight of the year, a week long trip to Heavenly Valley.

It is everyone's duty in a club to make everyone else feel at ease, but Virgos are especially good at making others feel comfortable. They have friends and are very loyal to their fellow classmates. They are discriminating in their choice of friends as seen by the clubs they have joined.

They are always ready to help and want their friendship to be appreciated. A person should never forget to thank a Virgo for a favor or any kind of friendly action. The organizations, large or small at NHHS, deserve the accolades of the entire student body for as Virgos, they have given much time, service, and effort to all of us. They have made 1970 a year of variety, action, and interest.

Scholarship for Service

The California Scholarship Federation is a statewide organization of students who have achieved high scholastic standing during the past semester.

Membership in CSF is based on a ten point system. Three points are given for every A, one point for every B, with no points given for C's.

Additionally, a student's citizenship is important as no more than 2 U's are permitted. If a student can maintain at least four semesters of high scholastic achievement, he then is eligible for life membership in CSF. He is given the title of "Sealbearer" and receives a gold pin as well as special honors at graduation.

In order to uphold their motto, "Scholarship for Service", CSF members coached fellow students in many different subjects. They also sponsored Quiz League, which is interscholastic competition between schools. On February 21, 1970, members were featured on the NBC television program, "It's Academic". Mike Kraft, Jose Rey, and Jody Ziccardi competed against University High School.

To balance out their activities during the year, CSF members enjoyed the Induction Dinners, held at the King Swede and the Smoke House. They also had fun and games at their annual picnic, held in North Hollywood Park. Other activities included a field trip to U.S.C. and several plays.

All in all, who are CSF members? They are high school students who have hoped, have worked, and have achieved the strength to move forward into the new decade.

American Foreign Students . . . Bridge the Communication Gap

A.F.S. is an exchange student program that is designed to promote international understanding and friendship. The motto of A.F.S. is "walk together, talk together, o ye people of the earth: then and only then shall you have peace", symbolizing the goal of achieving world peace on a person-to-person level.

A.F.S. was started as an ambulance service during the World Wars in an effort to help all soldiers. After the second World War, the leaders of A.F.S. decided to turn their service project into a student program where foreign students would come here and study. Later the exchange program was started when American students started going to foreign countries that had sent students here.

Through the years, the A.F.S. has sent thousands of students abroad and has received twice as many in the U.S. Many of the returnees have expressed their appreciation of the program by remaining in touch with their adopted families for many years. Through this exchange of ideas and customs, the A.F.S. has become an essential part of the progress of world peace and understanding.

1970 Snow Shots!

The North Hollywood High School Ski Club has been frolicking through the snows of California. The trips included fun-filled weekends at Mammoth, Badger Pass, and June Mountain. The club sponsored its second annual week-long Christmas trip and this year 42 of the club's 90 members schussed the slopes of Heavenly Valley, California.

At the weekly ski club meeting, exciting films of national and international competitors were viewed and at the 1970 Ski Show famed Jean-Claude Killy, three time gold medalist at the 1968 Olympics, was made the newest honorary member. Climaxing a year of safety, Miss La Face broke her leg trying to escape from school.

SPORTS

The Lion, symbol of the king, portrays perpetual spirit, courage, and the ability to excel given any obstacle. We feel these characteristics best represent the 1970 North Hollywood athletes.

Leo, the lion, is representative of each North Hollywood athlete. Every team member is striving to develop his skill and coordination to its fullest potential. The young athlete will never reach a peak; he is always compelled to improve his abilities.

This year, our teams have fought particularly difficult obstacles and have achieved victory. They have regenerated new life and spirit into the heart of every North Hollywood Husky.

The Varsity football team in particular, must be commended for having a successful season. The other teams: baseball, basketball, golf, track, cross country, gymnastics, tennis, and swimming have been equally successful. Each team deserves recognition and praise for its individual accomplishments.

Leo the lion, which here represents every athlete at North Hollywood, is not an old lion but rather a young cub, who every season is developing, trying to fulfill his potential.

This year every competitor had a certain amount of pride and self-respect because he had contributed to this development of our athletic program.

To the athlete, success is not measured by victories and losses but by the satisfaction and sense of personal achievement that one experiences while participating in a team effort.

1969 will undoubtedly be recorded as the year of the Husky. Not only did the Varsity defeat El Camino and Verdugo Hills 27-0 and 20-8, but they also battled Fairfax, Chatsworth, and Grant down to the wire. The Huskies never once lost their cool as they went into battle against a strong East Valley League.

However, North Hollywood did suffer on the injury list. With the loss of Jeff Tanker and the injury to Quarterback Jim Gattis near the end of the season, N.H. was weakened. Running back Henry Ornelas, who in the beginning of the season led the league in rushing, was also hurt with a foot injury during the victorious Verdugo Hills clash.

The fine coaching of Robert Bache and William Partridge, played a major part in the Husky squad's momentum. Their time and effort, along with a lot of good talent, made 1969 the dawning of a new decade of football for North Hollywood.

A Runner

Red exhaustion rips at your throat
And salt sweat spills off your forehead and mats your eyelids and brows
And drips on the burning ground
And your legs start to turn to rubber and collapse like a balloon.
"Pretty soon I've got to rest. How much farther? What's the good of this damn work anyway?"

The long distance runner is paid by the snap of a white thread across his chest.

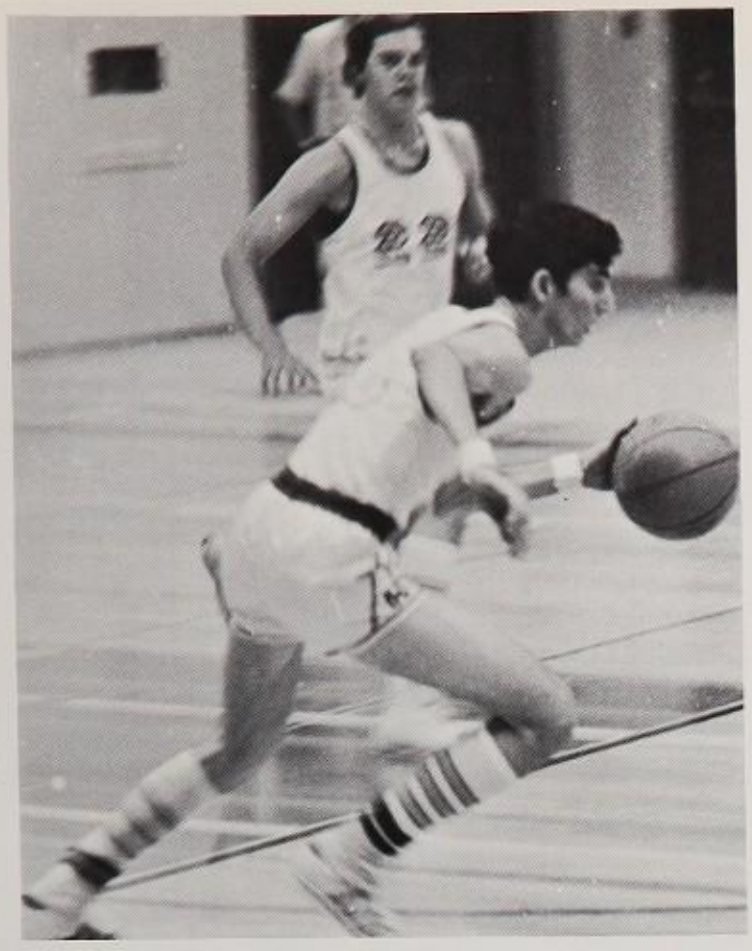
Varsity Ties For Third

Although they finished in a third place tie, this year's Varsity basketball team had its ups and downs. The problem appeared to be inconsistency. In the opening game of league play, the Huskies lost to second place Fairfax, 74-73. In the last game, they lost to the first place Grant Lancers by only one point, 65-64. By losing to Verdugo Hills and Hollywood, the Huskies ended the season in a tie for third place.

This year's team was led by Pete Faber, Second Team All East Valley League and the team's Best Offensive Player; Craig Raub, team's Best Defensive Player, and Don Henkle, team's Most Inspirational Player. Rounding out the starting team were Bill Nelson and Ron Werft. Other Valuable contributions were made by Greg Guenther, Kent Thornton, Sandy Geisser, Brad Stockton, and Biff Dawes.

Bill Nelson will be the only returning Varsity letterman for next year. However, players coming up from JV and BEE should offer Mr. Cadwell good prospects for the 1971 season.



Craig Raub on the move.

Led by Steve Sainsbury, the team's "Most Valuable Player," Barry Moss, and Dennis Storey, this year's JV team finished second behind Fairfax in the East Valley League. But luck was with the Huskies in the beginning as Fairfax was forced to forfeit its first three games, and No. Hollywood moved into a first place tie position. Going into the Verdugo Hills game with this stroke of good fortune, our team became overconfident and let the weaker Dons edge by, 51 to 47.

Even though Steve Sainsbury led the team in rebounds and scoring, the lack of bench strength and size hurt the Huskies in their losses to the stronger and more physical teams of Fairfax and Grant.

First Team All EVL honors went to Steve Sainsbury and Second Team honors to Barry Moss and Dennis Storey, while Jeff Chang and Rorie Davis added scoring punch to the Huskies' attack.

Ballad of the Bees

This year's BEE team tied with Grant for first place in the East Valley League. After losing badly to Grant, our explosive team came back in the second meeting between the two clubs to beat Grant 70-66, and become league co-champs.

The BEE's were guided by Vasilios Milonas and EVL's Most Valuable Player, Bill Dawes, First Team All East Valley League, and team's Most Vaulable player, and Tim Cruegar, Honorable Mention. During the season, the Huskies were averaging just over 100 points per game.

Other outstanding achievements during the season, were made by Walt Clouse, Peter Bloch, Steve Taber, John West, and Nelson Burkinshaw. All of whom made the BEE's bench the strongest in the league.

Cees Miss it by Tha-at Much

The CEE team in the absence of the injured Coach Malousis, tried desperately to win the East Valley League Crown. In the first game against Grant, the Huskies lost by one point, 57-56. The second game with the Lancers saw the Huskies leading Grant most of the game before bowing 64-59, in the final quarter.

The fine shooting Huskies could not match the more physical Lancers who also had the advantage of a stronger bench.

This year's team was led by Al Cardona, First-Team All East Valley League and team's "Most Valuable Player"; Ralph Torres, First-Team All East Valley League; and Steve Gaer, Second-Team All East Valley League.

Varsity Track

According to pre-season analysis by Coach Bache, the 1970 Track Team should excell in the sprints and distance running. The Times Indoor Track Meet held at the Forum in Inglewood proved this to be a fact as the relay team of Henry Ornelas, Don LaMarr, Dan Michaels, Frank Luke, and alternate Larry Fuller captured second place in the 640 yard relay with a time of 1:11.6 against city-wide competition.

Due to the loss of graduate lettermen, Jeff Piro in the pole vault, Randy Rosenbloom in the shot-put, and Ernie Ornelas in the high jump, the Huskie's efforts in these events were designed to build a strong foundation for next year's team.

Three years ago the Huskie Baseball team came in third in the EVL. Last year the Huskies took second and went to the city play-offs. This year's team tried to battle it out for first place in the EVL with its many returning lettermen: Jeff Tanker and Gary Rattet catchers; Barry Moss and Jim Gattis, infield; Frank Ferrel Sandy Geisser, and Deno Stathis, outfield; and pitchers, Brad Stockton, Vasilios Milonas, Bob Farrow, and Deno Stathis.

Coach Malousis has been building the foundation of a strong team for the last four years, and 1970 was indeed a climax to the decade. This year's team coupled fine hitting with "on-the-target" pitching to "slug-it-to" their East Valley competitors.

Singles: Gidney and Pollard.

With Mr. Rohland giving strong support, our tennis teams showed great promise of leading the way with a strong single team and a tough double duo. Morale and confidence were high on all levels, as the team played a good 1970 season and built a strong foundation for future tennis teams. The EVL saw some changes with the loss of Poly and Van Nuys High Schools and the addition of Sylmar and Fairfax. The tough teams to beat this year were Grant and hollywood High Schools, who gave our Varsity teams the toughest competition.

Singles: Bob Coss

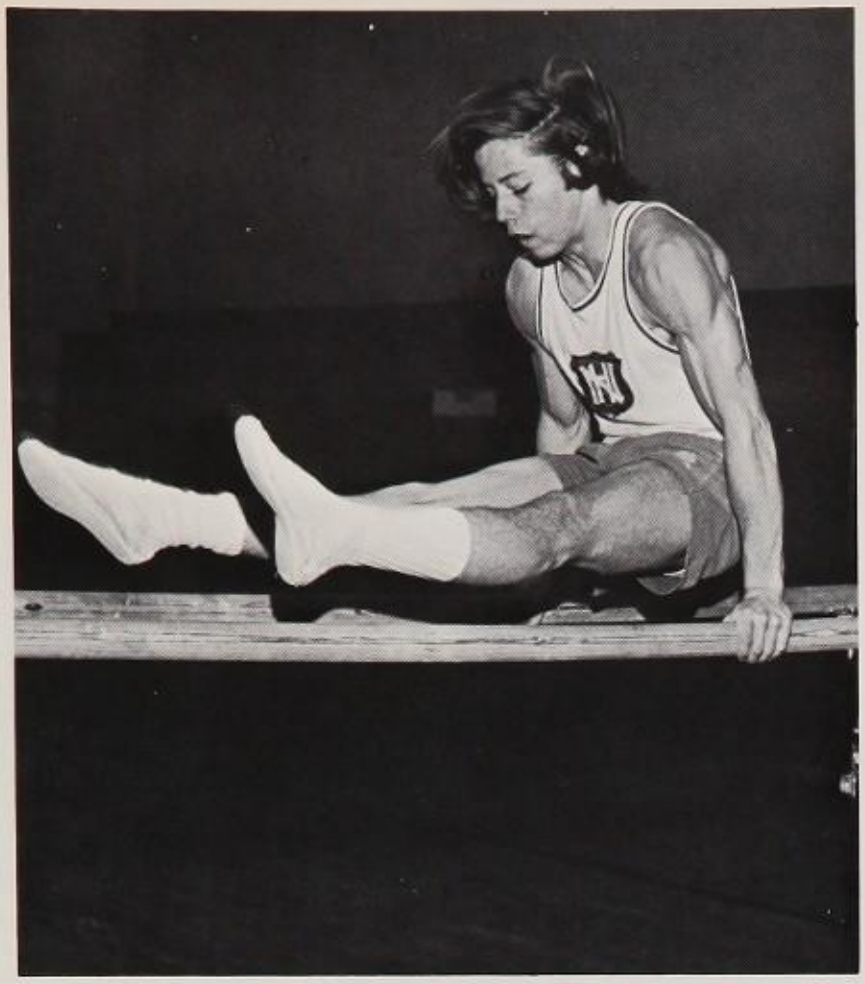
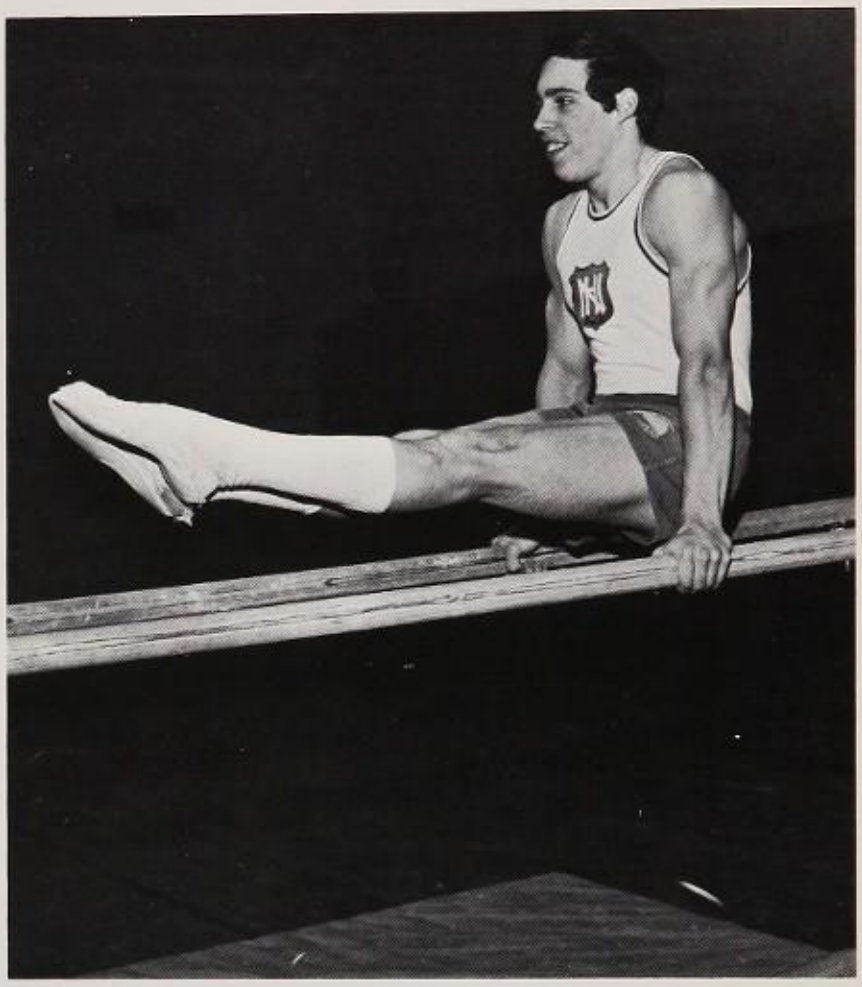
Gymnastics: A Reach for the Top



Danny Knight does his thing on the parallel bars.

Among many new additions to our varsity team this year, was Coach John Magginetti. Mr. Magginetti was the captain of the national championship team at Valley State in 1968—quite a fantastic accomplishment. Under this experienced gymnast's leadership, the aims for our team this year were high.



Shawn McClenahan shows great style in this event.

Due to a diligent coaching job by Coach Calwell, the prospects for the 1970 swim teams were bright. Practices were held daily at the YMCA on Tujunga Ave. and meets were held at L.A. City College and Hollywood High.

Major opposition to the Huskies came from Grant, Hollywood, and Sylmar, but all teams were greatly improved over 1969, with particular strength in the free style, medley relay, and free relay.

Good coaching is an essential part of any sport.

Swimming requires great coordination.

FACULTY & ADMINIS-TRATION

Steady—the administration is ready to help solve most of our everyday problems that arise about school. Kindly—our administration and faculty are ready to give us a kindly word of advice when called upon. Dependable—they can be relied upon to give us the most correct answers: three reasons for choosing Taurus the bull as the sign to represent our Faculty and Administration.

The Taurus person is placid and good-natured. Their broad shoulders carry heavy responsibilities without complaint; also their generous and faithful natures are pillars to all those who are in need of encouragement; this we can see in our counselors. Taurus the bull is known as the "Builder", a sure characteristic as our administration and faculty are constantly building our education. They have great strength like the bull and are tenacious, practical, and reserved. They are careful workers and excellent planners. Taurans are rugged, determined, patient, and plodding people and they proffer the greatest gift of all — themselves.

We can all agree the main interests of our faculty and administration are rooted in their environment. Like set posts in the ground, these people hold steadfast with steady nerves and endurance. A Taurus moves through life with measured strides, apparently carefree but deeply serious. They dislike nothing more than to be hurried, only in anger does a Taurus move swiftly.

A Taurus finds it somewhat difficult to express himself. The feeling a Taurus has of loneliness in a crowd, produces a bit of uncertainty in his nature, and doubt of his own importance and ability to cope with life.

Our faculty and administration play an important part in our school life, for they help us to realize our potential and become successful.

Mr. Donen
Head Counselor

Mr. Donen
Aquarius. Degree: BA, MA. Colleges: UCLA, SFVSC, and Cal State LA. Likes sports and reading.

Good luck to all of you in whatever endeavors you pursue.

The hopes and goals for the future you are striving for are now partially fulfilled. What determines your success from now on will be your determination to succeed. You should gain an insight into your character and determine your strengths and weaknesses. Follow what you believe is right with consideration, tolerance, and respect for others in pursuing your goals.

My crystal ball predicts that if each one of you consider and follow these guidelines the new decade which is now upon us will mean a better tomorrow for all.

GIRLS' VICE PRINCIPAL

Sagittarius. Degree: BS, MBA. College: USC. Likes cooking, travel, needlecraft, and sports.

Participation or involvement as we say today is the key to a successful and long remembered high school career. In the "Age of Aquarius" things move much more rapidly so unless you become involved in classroom activities, student body activities as well as your community programs immediately, you are going to be left behind.

The 1960's brought about much rapid change in all areas particularly in individual and human rights and scientific achievement. The first man on the Moon has brought another planet into our sphere of living. We must keep pace with this progress and be prepared to assume our responsibilities in this new "Inter-Space Age".

To quote our recently retired superintendent, Mr. Crowther, "You will never get to second base unless you get to first base first!"

So get involved and get "home" as well as first, second and third base.

- M. Wolfe

Vice Principals Seek Involvement

As the first graduating class of the 1970's, you occupy a unique place in the history of our nation. Your childhood took place during the Korean and Vietnamese conflicts. You attended school through the rapidly changing and often confusing years of the 1960's. You are attaining maturity at a critical time for us all.

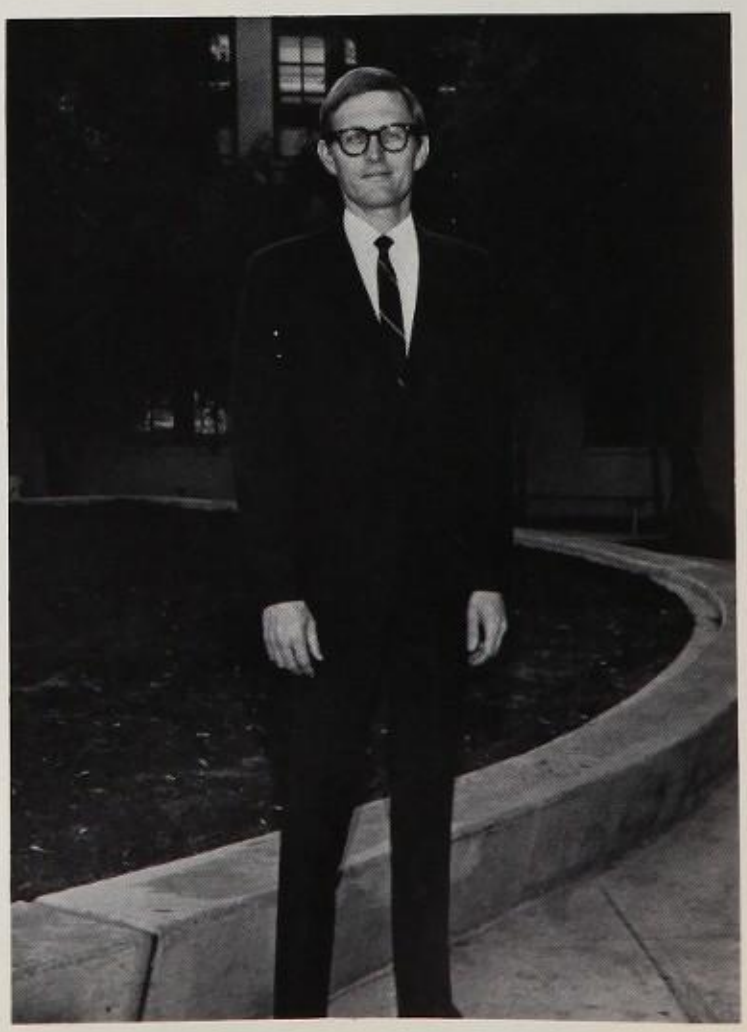
Although I look to the future with a degree of uncertainty, I am confident that young adults such as you will take every opportunity to make this decade more successful than the last.

My best wishes to you all for a peaceful life.

-Charles Stewart

MR. CHARLES STEWART,
BOYS' VICE PRINCIPAL

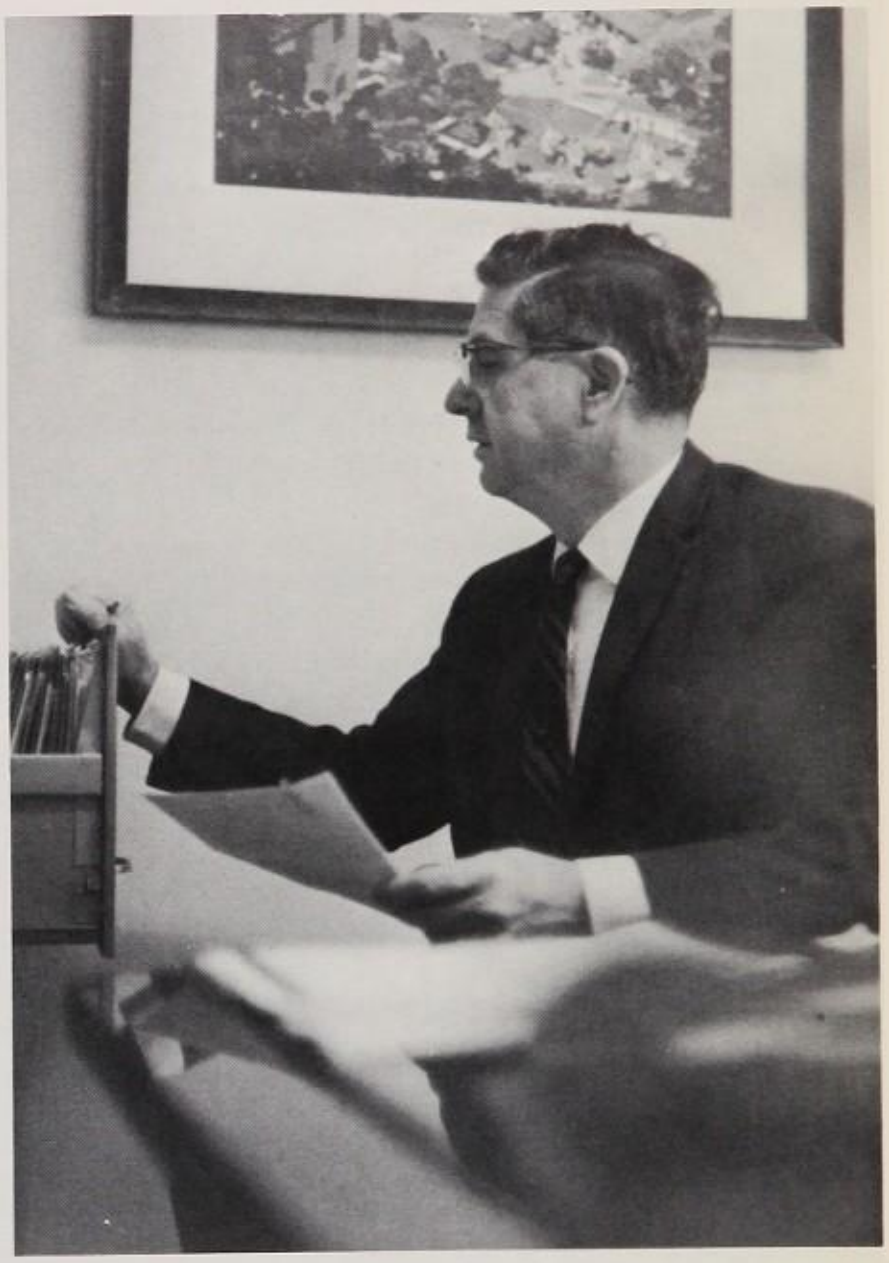
Scorpio. Degrees: BA, MA. College: Occidental. Likes music, art, and politics.



Dr. Pack pauses to reflect on the flowering "T.P." Trees.

The Spring Fair involves everyone. Dr. Pack makes his contribution toward a Queen candidate.

Our Principal A Man Of Many Signs



His office is a busy place.

Aquarians, sons and daughters of Aquarius, a sign of the Zodiac. The ancients looked upward and saw with creative imagination configurations among the stars. They attributed to those signs factors affecting the lives of men.

With the tools, knowledge and skill provided in school, and with comparable creative imagination to that of our ancestors, you young people today are able to identify and understand with much greater accuracy those environmental factors which control men's lives. Because you understand better, you see the world with greater reality than your ancestors. You are to this extent prepared for greater success. And you will be successful if you look up, find your star, fix your gaze upon it, and move ever toward it.

—Dr. Pack

Graduates: Planning to get a job now?

We have a wide variety of interesting, steady work for men and women. The starting salary is a good one. Even if you haven't had job experience, we can help you match your talents to one of the many different jobs in our growing communications business.

We'll add to that — training at full pay, pleasant working conditions, friendly people to work with. When you're ready to put your ability and ambition to work, see your employment counselor. Or check with us.

Good Luck and Love to you all ---- Seniors

Mr. John C. Lundy

Students who enroll in Yearbook soon realize that they have accepted a 24 hour challenge and one that is generally "thankless." They work long and hard to record the year that was and very few ever stop to acknowledge their efforts. To each teacher, administrator, staff member, or student, who stopped one second to help them, may I give my personal thanks. Running a picture schedule, meeting a deadline, designing a showcase, or just doing your job is often the result of a "team effort" and thankfully NHHS still has a few members left who are willing to be a part of that team.

To the many who have reached out beyond their personal orbit, may we say, "Thank You". We often feel that our destinies are self made but in reality they are merely a reflection of those who have helped along the way. Our reflection must then credit those who have taken that "...giant step for mankind!"

To Mrs. Goodale and Mrs. Bramy, without whom our underclassmen section would never have been completed... To all of the office staff who gave so unselfishly of supplies, time, and especially, the telephone... To our administration who always considered each new effort with complete honesty and expediency...To Mrs. Macy and Mrs. Hall, Mr. O'Brien, George Matthews, and Joe Gassler who have never said, "it can't be done."...To Lisa Campos, Howard Bliman, Dan Viola, Dennis Kirkpatrick, David Miller, Stephania Zoto, and Jack McCalla for their artistic and photographic efforts...To all the parents and families of the staff, especially Mr. and Mrs. Bossel, Mr. and Mrs. Prey, Larry, and Alan whose unrewarded assistance kept us going ...To our publisher, Bob Hopkins, Bill Jacobs, and our photographer, Jerry and White's Studios, for recognizing our needs and bending over backwards...To all in the community who despite adverse socio-economic conditions, still believe in education, thank you for your patronage...And finally to each teacher of staff member who honored a picture schedule, accepted a tardy excuse, or dug down for a personal contribution, all we can say is our job would be impossible without you...And to all the others whose individual efforts are as numerous as the stars in all the galaxies. "Thank You" and now that the Age of Aquarius had dawned, "Keep the faith..."
